Continuing the series of informal tours unravelling the art history and cultural context behind exhibitions, Curator of the exhibition, Catherine Hemelryk, takes a look at Bull Market.

Tuesday, 30 March

READING GROUP: ON NATURAL SELECTION, CHARLES DARWIN

7.00 pm

FREE, booking essential

2009 marked 200 years since Darwin's birth and 150 years since the publication of On the Origin of the Species. This group will continue the conversations on Darwin and revisit his text to ask its relevance to contemporary life. Attendees will be asked to read the text in advance – there are copies in the Gallery art lounge and links to segments of online versions from our website www.burystedmundsartgallery.org.

Readers are asked to note that, as space is limited booking is essential for all events, talks and workshops. Children aged 8 years and under must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Denny Brothers, the Bury St Edmunds art suppliers, have kindly offered a 10% discount on art materials for every workshop booked.

Bury St Edmunds Art Gallery is an official Arts Award Welcome organisation and through this scheme provides opportunities to young people aged between 11 and 25. Those interested in getting involved can find out more about the Arts Award scheme should visit www.artsward.org.uk.
