

FORTHCOMING EVENTS AT MOYSE'S HALL APRIL TO DECEMBER 2009

APRIL TO DECEMBER – EXHIBITION -'Women by Women' – an exhibition looking at works by local female artists.

Fri 10 July 2pm Lecture: 'Medieval Misericords'. Join Ron Murrell for an interesting look at the Misericord, some of the most easily overlooked church carvings and discover their meanings and history. Tickets £5.50/£5 concessions, including refreshment. BOOKING ESSENTIAL 01284 706183

Sun 12 July Meet the Flintstone Explore the uses of flint through time from weapons and tools, to the gunmaking trade as well as a building material. Tour of the building: 11am & 2pm explaining uses of flint. Building with flint today – demonstrations throughout the day of building a flint wall and details of the building materials used both in the past and continued today. Normal admission applies.

Fri 24 July 2pm Lecture: 'Medieval Archaeology and more'. Join Jane Carr, archaeologist, looking at recent finds in the area. Part of the Festival of British Archaeology 2009. Tickets £5.50/£5 concessions, including refreshment. BOOKING ESSENTIAL 01284 706183

Sat 25 July Living History Day with Arriere Ban: Explore history from 1066 to the War of the Roses and try on helmets, look at plate armour and explore various weapons and longbows. Also opportunities for horn blowing and mail armour – lots of 'hands on' activities. Fun for all the family.

WEBSITE: www.moysesshall.org FOR ALL EVENTS: CALL 01284 706183 OR EMAIL moysesshall@stedsbc.gov.uk FOR MORE DETAILS.

ADMISSION

Moyse's Hall is open daily from 10am to 5pm (last entry at 4pm). Normal admission £3.00 Adults, £2.00 children & concessions, £9.00 family. Free to residents of St Edmundsbury.